DBU Vance Memorial LIBRARY
Abundant Resources. Superior Service.

20TH CENTURY POETRY LITERATURE SOURCES

Rev 4/09

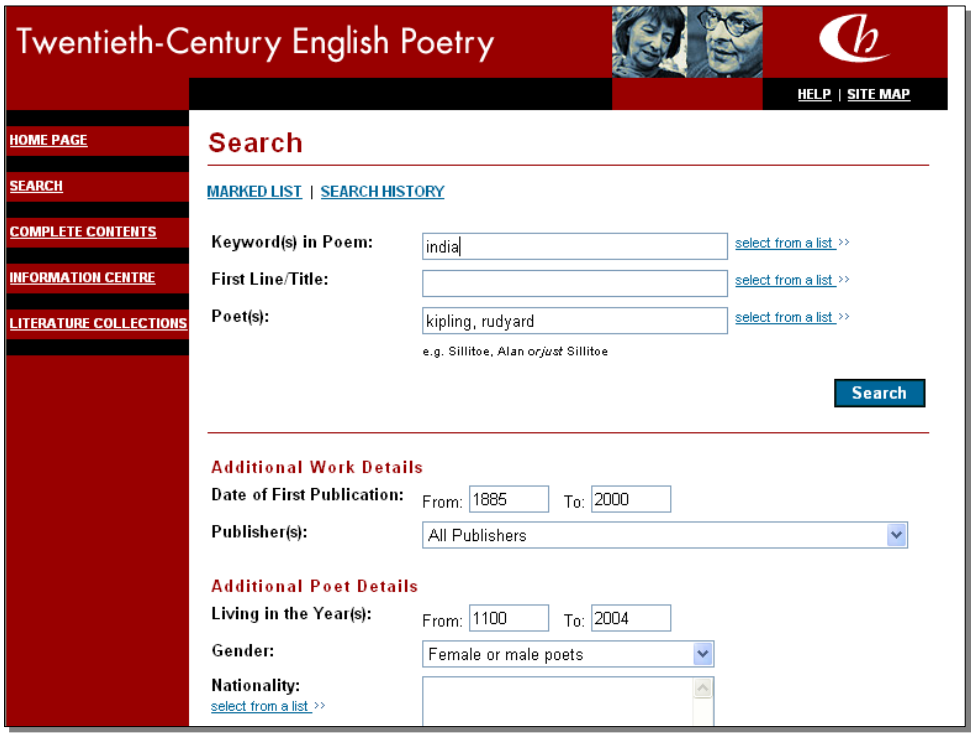
Twentieth-Century American Poetry is an unprecedented collection of poetry which allows readers a unique survey of the movements, schools and distinctive voices of modern and contemporary American poetry. With the collaboration of America's leading poetry publishers, the collection brings together 50,000 poems by over 300 poets.

Twentieth-Century English Poetry contains the poetry of over 280 poets from 1900 to the present day, reflecting the multiple concerns and techniques of a century's writing. From modernist experiment to post-modern playfulness, from Georgian convention to free-verse confession, and from Edwardian poetry of empire to post-imperial diversity, the collection embraces vital contrasts and continuities.

Start by selecting either American poetry or English poetry.

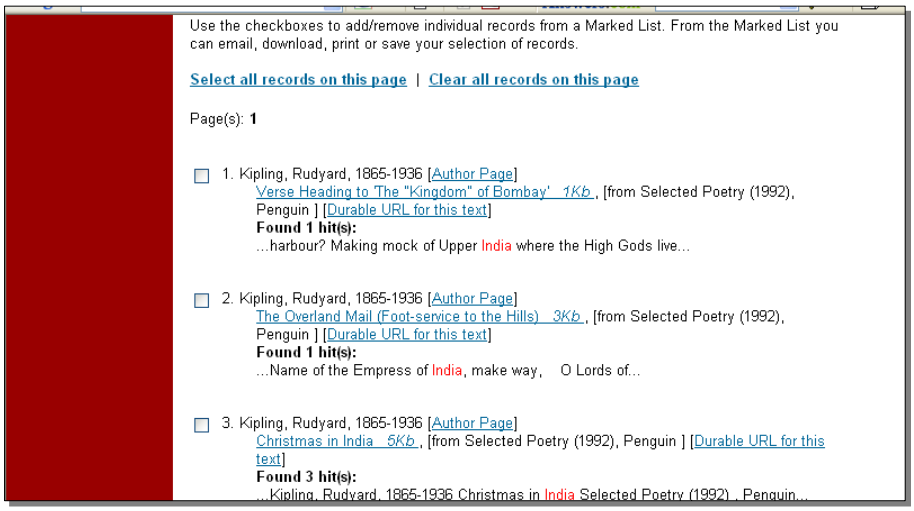
Search:

1. Select the Search button at the top left of the screen.
2. Enter search terms – either a keyword from the text, a word or words from the title of a poem, or a poet's name.
3. Add additional qualifiers below, if desired.
4. Click Search.



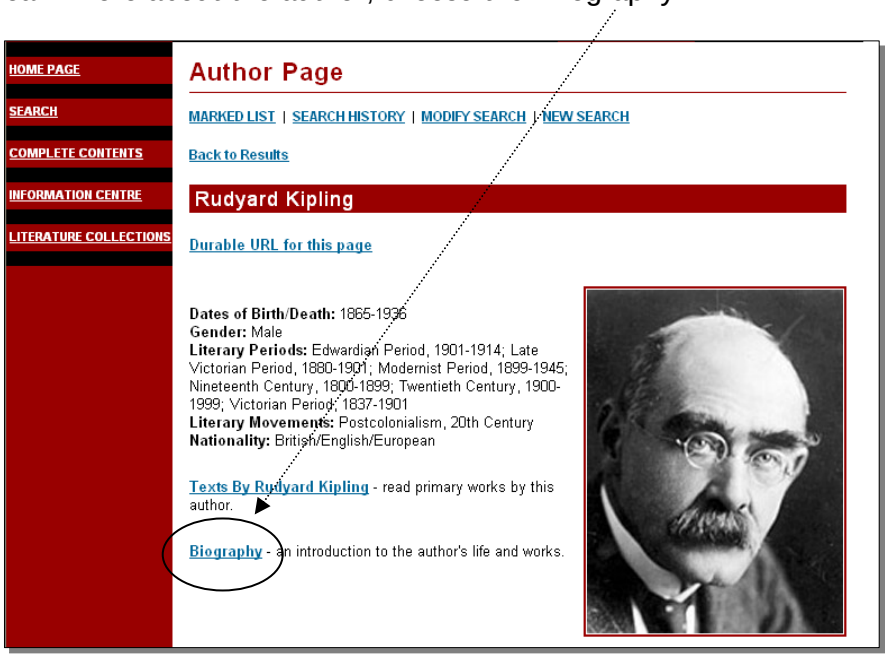
Results:

- You can select several poems by checking the boxes to the left, which saves them to a "Marked List." Later, you can view your Marked List, and print, email, or download the items you have saved. A link to the Marked List will appear at the top left of any search screen or results screen.
- To read the poem, click the title.
- To learn more about the author, click the "Author Page" link.



Author Page:

- Basic facts about the author appear along with a photo or picture.
- To learn more about the author, choose the "Biography" link.



For assistance please contact a Reference Librarian 214/333-5221 or 1/800/483-7048