Naxos Video Library brings you an extensive streaming video library of classical music performances, opera, ballet, live concerts and documentaries. Watch the world’s greatest opera houses, ballet companies, orchestras and artists perform on demand! With your access through DBU, stream any video in this collection from anywhere in the world with an internet connection.

Keyword Search (Default)

1. Type your search terms in the open text field. Search terms may be composer name (bruckner), composition title (eroica), keyword (christmas), nickname of a work (trout quintet), etc.

2. NOTE: Simplify your search terms and avoid using anything too specific: “Beethoven symphony 5” works much better than “Beethoven’s Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Opus 67.”

3. Click Enter (on your keyboard).

Results

1. Your search will generate a list of hits, representing video recordings that meet your search criteria in some way.

2. Select the title of the video you wish to watch.

3. The video information/playback page will open. Choose the "Chapters" tab to view a list of the chapters contained in the video.
4. You may play the video from the beginning or jump to any part of the performance by clicking on the chapter title, if available.

5. The standard buttons for playback, pause, and stop can be found below the video window. For dramatic works, click on the “Libretto/Text” tab to read the text in the language of your choice.

6. Other information, including liner notes when available, may be found under the “Cast” tab.

Other Options

Genres and Programmes:
On the Naxos Video home page, select a genre from the “Genres and Programmes” drop-down to view a list of videos in your selected category.

Composers:
Select “Composers” in the toolbar to view an alphabetical list of composers. Use the alphabet track to jump through the list to the desired composer name. A list of works by that composer will appear. Clicking on a work’s title will allow you to view the performance selected. (See above for instructions relating to navigation and playback of tracks.)
Advanced Search:
Advanced Search is recommended for finding excerpts from complete works, for example, arias from operas or songs from cycles, as well as searching for performances in a specific category or by a particular performer.
1. Select “Advanced Search” from the toolbar.
2. Advanced Search features eight search fields which can be used singly or in combinations, as well as a list of genres from which to choose. You may fill in as few or as many text fields as needed. (To choose multiple genres, press CTRL.)

Playlists:
Professors may create and assign playlists for listening homework.
1. If your professor has created a playlist for you, you must know the name of the list.
2. Select “Playlists” from the toolbar.
3. Select the appropriate playlist from the options displayed. You can play the entire playlist, or choose a single item from the list.

Remember, sound quality depends on your speakers or headphones. Better quality headphones or speakers will result in better quality sound.

For assistance please contact a Reference Librarian 214/333-5221 or 1/800/483-7048