Who’s Who on the Web features comprehensive profiles on over 1.4 million of the most accomplished individuals from all fields of endeavor including: government, business, science and technology, the arts, entertainment, and sports. Recognized globally since 1899 as the premier biographical data provider, Marquis Who’s Who now gives you the ability to conduct powerful searches of its entire database of achievers from around the globe. Search by name, gender, occupation, geography, hobbies and interests, religion and much more.

Search:

1. For a simple name search, enter last and first names in the top boxes and click Search.
2. Advanced search options are available below the name fields. You can add criteria to a name search, or search for people who meet certain criteria; for example, search for people in Dallas, Texas who work in Community/Social Services/Nonprofit organizations and whose religious affiliation is Baptist:
Results:
Select the desired name from the results list to view the biographical information.

Print:
Use the “Print this Biography” link found at the top of the biographical information display to reformat for printing.

Other features:
- Who’s Who on the Web features three additional biography databases:
  - Who’s Who in American History
  - Who’s Who in American Art
  - Who’s Who in American Politics
- To use these products, select their links from the left toolbar, then submit search terms as appropriate.

For assistance please contact a Reference Librarian 214.333.5221 or 1.800.483.7048