Mentoring Program

Gary Cook Graduate School of Leadership faculty are available to ministry students for short-term mentoring. Our experienced and caring faculty would like to help students with ministry related matters. Contact Dr. Joe Mosley at 214-333-5639 or jmosley@dbu.edu to schedule an appointment.

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

Hebrews 10:25

FAQ’s

If the Ministry Student Grant/Scholarship is listed on my award letter from Financial Aid, is there anything else I need to do? Yes, in order for the grant/scholarship to be officially posted to your account, you must be in compliance with and complete the Ministry Student Grant/Scholarship Application.

Am I required to take RELI 1310: Introduction to Christian Ministry? First Year Baptist Ministry Student Grant recipients must take RELI 1310: Introduction to Christian Ministry during the respective school year.

Why am I required to check my DBU email? All DBU students are required to check their DBU email address regularly. Important communication relative to ministry students is sent to grant/scholarship recipients’ DBU email accounts throughout the year.

How much aid will I receive? That will depend upon which Ministry Student Grant/Scholarship you qualify, apply, and are approved for. The First Year Baptist and BGCT Ministry Grants are provided by funds from the BGCT and are $50 per semester hour. The grant will increase to $75 per semester hour for junior and senior BGCT students majoring or minoring in Biblical Studies, Christian Studies, or Christian Ministries. The DBU Ministry Scholarship, provided directly from DBU funds, is $52 per semester hour. The Master of Arts in Christian Education, Master of Arts in Christian Education: Childhood Ministry, Master of Arts in Christian Education: Student Ministry, Master of Arts in Global Leadership, and Master of Arts in Worship Leadership grants are $100 per semester hour; and the Ed.D. in Educational Leadership Education Ministry Leadership Track and Ph.D. in Leadership Studies Ministry Concentration grants are $150 per semester hour. DBU matches these graduate grants given by the BGXT with another $100 per semester hour, provided directly from DBU funds.
The Ministry Student Grant/Scholarship program is available to qualifying students who have shown evidence of a divine call to a career in vocational or bi-vocational church related Christian ministry.

Applications may be obtained from the Ministry Student Office, Office of Financial Aid, or on the Ministry Student pages of the DBU website, at www.dbu.edu/ministry_student. Applications for the next school year will be available each January. Deadlines for submitting fall, spring, and summer applications are the last add/drop date of each semester. No undergraduate applications will be accepted for the current school year after April 1. Graduate applications turned in after October 1 will not be awarded for the fall semester, graduate applications turned in after April 1 will not be awarded for the spring semester, and, graduate applications turned in after July 15 will not be awarded for the summer semester.

Active membership in DBU's Ministry Fellowship and an annual renewal application are required. Contact the Director of Ministry Students for more information.

Dr. Joe Mosley
Program Director
214.333.5639
214.333.5673 (fax)
jmosley@dbu.edu

The Ministry Fellowship seeks to encourage students to reach their ministry goals through relationships, readiness, and resources.

Mission Statement
The Ministry Fellowship seeks to deepen the spiritual life and training of those students preparing for, and involved in, Christian vocational service. The purpose of Dallas Baptist University’s Ministry Fellowship is to encourage and equip DBU students who are studying for and/or involved in Christian ministry by providing opportunities for discussion, fellowship, networking and service.

Ministry Fellowship Requirement
Students receiving Ministry Student Grants/ Scholarships are required to be active members of DBU’s Ministry Fellowship. For students utilizing distance education, participation in the annual food drive is an excellent opportunity to fulfill the requirement.

Sponsors
Dr. Rick Gregory, Dr. Joe Mosley, and Vivian Castleberry. Contact Vivian Castleberry at 214-333-8882 or vivian@dbu.edu for additional information.

Activities
Activities of the Ministry Fellowship include luncheons, food drives, service projects, and more. Current information is available on Blackboard and at www.dbu.edu/ministry_student.

Relationships
Ministry Fellowship activities are designed to build and develop relationships through interaction with mentors, professionals, and peers.

Readiness
Luncheons, seminars, and training help prepare ministry students in the areas of worship, missions, student and children’s ministry, evangelism, and other church, denominational, or para-church Christian ministries.

Resources
Many valuable resources are available to help educate ministry students at DBU. The College of Christian Faith, Gary Cook Graduate School of Leadership, Spiritual Life Department, and other ministry organizations offer resources to enhance the training of ministry students.

In addition to the Ministerial Grant/Scholarship and professional mentors, ministry students have access to several resources including the Birkman Questionaire (offered through the RELI 1310 course), Ministry Student Website (www.dbu.edu/ministry_student), Blackboard (online.dbu.edu), and more. For students who are not enrolled in RELI 1310 but would like to take the Birkman survey, please contact Dr. Joe Mosley at 214-333-5528.